SWCTC Cottage View Drive-In documentary nominated for Regional Emmy

South Washington County Telecommunications Commission Producer Justin Atkinson is nominated for a Regional Emmy award by the Upper Midwest Chapter of the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences. The announcement was made on Saturday August 20th.

Atkinson is nominated in the Historical/Cultural/Nostalgic – Single Story/Feature/Segment category for “Cottage View Drive-In” a historic look at one of the last drive-in theaters in the country.

“The South Washington County Telecommunications Commission (SWCTC) would like to congratulate Government Producer, Justin Atkinson, for his continued excellence in producing award winning programming” said SWCTC Chair, Roger Peterson.

SWCTC Administrator, Fran Hemmesch said “this is recognition of the high caliber of our staff and their production work as well as an affirmation of the support we receive from the SWCTC and our Member Cities.”

The Emmy Awards will be presented, Saturday September 24th, 2011 at the Historic State Theater in Downtown Minneapolis.
